1
2
3
4
5
6	UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7	DISTRICT OF NEVADA
8	* * *
9	ALFONSO JACKSON,
10	Plaintiff, 3:10-CV-00771-LRH-WGC
11	v.) ORDER
12	JOHN DOE, et al.,
13	Defendants.)
15	Before the Court is Defendants Justin Chenault, Charles Kirchen, Reuben Lajda, Jason
15 16	Marshall, and Tom Stubbs' (collectively "Defendants") Motion for Alfonso Jackson ("Jackson") to
15 16 17	Marshall, and Tom Stubbs' (collectively "Defendants") Motion for Alfonso Jackson ("Jackson") to Wear Restraints at Trial. Doc. #151. Jackson filed an Opposition (Doc. #155), to which
15 16 17 18	Marshall, and Tom Stubbs' (collectively "Defendants") Motion for Alfonso Jackson ("Jackson") to Wear Restraints at Trial. Doc. #151. Jackson filed an Opposition (Doc. #155), to which Defendants replied (Doc. #156).
15 16 17 18	Marshall, and Tom Stubbs' (collectively "Defendants") Motion for Alfonso Jackson ("Jackson") to Wear Restraints at Trial. Doc. #151. Jackson filed an Opposition (Doc. #155), to which Defendants replied (Doc. #156). The Court accepts Defendants' representations as to the legitimate and substantiated
15 16 17 18 19 20	Marshall, and Tom Stubbs' (collectively "Defendants") Motion for Alfonso Jackson ("Jackson") to Wear Restraints at Trial. Doc. #151. Jackson filed an Opposition (Doc. #155), to which Defendants replied (Doc. #156). The Court accepts Defendants' representations as to the legitimate and substantiated security concerns related to Jackson and the associated necessity of restraints during trial in this
15 16 17 18 19 20 21	Marshall, and Tom Stubbs' (collectively "Defendants") Motion for Alfonso Jackson ("Jackson") to Wear Restraints at Trial. Doc. #151. Jackson filed an Opposition (Doc. #155), to which Defendants replied (Doc. #156). The Court accepts Defendants' representations as to the legitimate and substantiated security concerns related to Jackson and the associated necessity of restraints during trial in this matter. Accordingly, the Court finds that it is appropriate to order Jackson to wear ankle restraints
115 116 117 118 119 220 221 222	Marshall, and Tom Stubbs' (collectively "Defendants") Motion for Alfonso Jackson ("Jackson") to Wear Restraints at Trial. Doc. #151. Jackson filed an Opposition (Doc. #155), to which Defendants replied (Doc. #156). The Court accepts Defendants' representations as to the legitimate and substantiated security concerns related to Jackson and the associated necessity of restraints during trial in this matter. Accordingly, the Court finds that it is appropriate to order Jackson to wear ankle restraints that are attached to the floor and an electronic stun belt under his clothing so that it is not visible or
15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Marshall, and Tom Stubbs' (collectively "Defendants") Motion for Alfonso Jackson ("Jackson") to Wear Restraints at Trial. Doc. #151. Jackson filed an Opposition (Doc. #155), to which Defendants replied (Doc. #156). The Court accepts Defendants' representations as to the legitimate and substantiated security concerns related to Jackson and the associated necessity of restraints during trial in this matter. Accordingly, the Court finds that it is appropriate to order Jackson to wear ankle restraints that are attached to the floor and an electronic stun belt under his clothing so that it is not visible or otherwise apparent to a jury. The Court further finds that this is the least restrictive means
18 19 20 21 22 23 24	Marshall, and Tom Stubbs' (collectively "Defendants") Motion for Alfonso Jackson ("Jackson") to Wear Restraints at Trial. Doc. #151. Jackson filed an Opposition (Doc. #155), to which Defendants replied (Doc. #156). The Court accepts Defendants' representations as to the legitimate and substantiated security concerns related to Jackson and the associated necessity of restraints during trial in this matter. Accordingly, the Court finds that it is appropriate to order Jackson to wear ankle restraints that are attached to the floor and an electronic stun belt under his clothing so that it is not visible or otherwise apparent to a jury. The Court further finds that this is the least restrictive means available to balance Jackson's interest in presenting his case to a jury in a fair and unbiased manner
15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Marshall, and Tom Stubbs' (collectively "Defendants") Motion for Alfonso Jackson ("Jackson") to Wear Restraints at Trial. Doc. #151. Jackson filed an Opposition (Doc. #155), to which Defendants replied (Doc. #156). The Court accepts Defendants' representations as to the legitimate and substantiated security concerns related to Jackson and the associated necessity of restraints during trial in this matter. Accordingly, the Court finds that it is appropriate to order Jackson to wear ankle restraints that are attached to the floor and an electronic stun belt under his clothing so that it is not visible or otherwise apparent to a jury. The Court further finds that this is the least restrictive means

¹ Refers to the Court's docket number.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Defendants' Motion for Jackson to Wear Restraints at Trial (Doc. #151) is GRANTED. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Jackson shall wear ankle restraints that are attached to the floor and an electronic stun belt under his clothing so that it is not visible or otherwise apparent to a jury. IT IS SO ORDERED. DATED this 6th day of March, 2014. ishe UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE